	CONFIDENTIAL
	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY	25X1
NTRY	INFORMATION REPORT	23/1
JECT	Information Timescring Refugees/Deportations
32. 0.
	25X1
		DATE DISTR. / Jun 1954
		NO. OF PACES 1
	THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION ASSECTING THE NATIONAL OCFERED  OF THE UNLIED STATES, BITHIN THEMERAING OF TITLE IA, SECTIONS 783  AND 784, OF THE U.S. FUDE, AS AMENDED. (15 TRANSMISSION OF HEVE-	NO. OF ENGLS.
	LATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROMIBITED BY LAW, THEREPRODUCTION OF THIS REPORT IS PROMIBITED.	SCAP. To	į
25X1	THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION	REPORT NO.
having it is the US who has knowle in fea sent to childr bring prefer they a succees The last 1 Octobe 5X1 and th The suit that to 5X1 that to	or of 1951. The deportees (among them five to Yenissei, where some continued on floating raft certain of these poorly-made rafts fell appears baggage fell into glacial waters. There migh revivors lost everything. The only white that the hey wore.	ardless of their fate, rker or of a slave in nd by their husbands r, happier in the ps, in the US than hat they might be eportation with their man left alone to ch a situation is still not too concerned when is not known or if they isappearance.  e in September and [students) were taken by s (sieliai in Lithuanian). art so that the passengers t have been many drowned. y had left was the clothing s resigned themselves to having it is the US who ha knowle in feasent the childr bring prefer they a succees The last X1 Octobe X1 rail to X1 and the X1 that to X1 the sufficient with the control of the sufficient the control of the sufficient the control of the control	always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we also had the opportunity to escape; they are howevered that their husbands are safe and often, perhaps aring continually that they might be arrested or the Siberian prison camps in which case their own does would follow. It is indeed difficult for a we up her children in present-day conditions, but sure able to deportation to Siberia. These women are are told that the exact location of their busbands of in obtaining a plausible explanation of their desired in obtaining a plausible explanation of their desired for 1951. The deportees (among them five over the continued on floating raft of 1951. The deportees (among them five over the continued on floating raft of 1951. The deportees (among them five over the continued on floating raft of 1951. The deportees (among them five over the continued on floating raft of 1951. The deportees for the deportee of the deportee of the deportee of a request for voluntary departure, for in this in them food and clothing whereas in any case.	ardless of their fate, rker or of a slave in nd by their husbands r, happier in the ps, in the US than hat they might be eportation with their man left alone to ch a situation is still not too concerned when is not known or if they isappearance.  e in September and [students) were taken by s (sieliai in Lithuanian). art so that the passengers t have been many drowned. I had left was the clothing s resigned themselves to any they were permitted to having it is the US who ha knowle in fea sent t childr bring prefer they a succee  The la 5X1 Octobe 5X1 rail t 5X1 and th The su signia	always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we also had the opportunity to escape; they are howevered that their husbands are safe and often, perhabiting continually that they might be arrested or the Siberian prison camps in which case their own does would follow. It is indeed difficult for a we can would follow. It is indeed difficult for a we have to deportation to Siberia. These women are true told that the exact location of their busbands and in obtaining a plausible explanation of their desired in obtaining a plausible explanation of their desired for 1951. The deportees (among them five of Yenissei, where some continued on floating raft certain of these poorly made rafts fell appears baggage fell into glacial waters. There might refer to be a severything. The only white that the hey were. Some continued to the deportee of a request for voluntary departure.	ardless of their fate, rker or of a slave in nd by their husbands r, happier in the ps, in the US than hat they might be eportation with their man left alone to ch a situation is still not too concerned when is not known or if they isappearance.  e in September and [students) were taken by s (sieliai in Lithuanian). art so that the passengers t have been many drowned. I had left was the clothing s resigned themselves to any they were permitted to having it is the US who has knowle in fea sent t childr bring prefer they a succee  X1 Octobe  X1 and th  X1 that t signing X1 take w	always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we SSR. Many women with children have been left behinve had the opportunity to escape; they are howevered that their husbands are safe and often, perhaps are continually that they might be arrested or the side of their number of their own down would follow. It is indeed difficult for a wear would follow. It is indeed difficult for a wear to deportation to Siberia. These women are the told that the exact location of their husbands and in obtaining a plausible explanation of their desired of 1951. The deportees (among them five of 1951. The deportees (among them five of Yenissei, where some continued on floating raft of the baggage fell into glacial waters. There might revivors lost everything. The only white that the hey were. In most of the deportee of a request for voluntary departure, for in this ith them food and clothing, whereas, in any case orbidden to take with them whatever they might have	ardless of their fate, rker or of a slave in and by their husbands r, happier in the ps, in the US than hat they might be eportation with their man left alone to the a situation is still not too concerned when is not known or if they isappearance.  e in September and [students) were taken by s (sieliai in Lithuanian). art so that the passengers thave been many drowned. y had left was the clothing s resigned themselves to way they were permitted to of resistance, deportees we had.
having it is the US who has knowle in feasent t childr bring prefer they a succees The last contraint to the last contraint to the succees The last contraint to t	always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we also had the opportunity to escape; they are howevered that their husbands are safe and often, perhabiting continually that they might be arrested or the Siberian prison camps in which case their own does not not consider their own does not consider their the safe to deportation to Siberia. These women are treated that the exact location of their does not contain a plausible explanation of their does the deportations of their does not safe their busbands of the deportees (among them five over the containing a plausible explanation of their does not safe the deportees of 1951. The deportees (among them five over the deportees of 1951. The deportees (among them five over the deportees of the deportee of the deportee of the safe that the hey were. I most of the deportee of a request for voluntary departure, for in this in them food and clothing, whereas, in any case orbiden to take with them whatever they might have the mentality of might have the contained by the thought of it is there, one no longer fears anything or anythods.	ardless of their fate, rker or of a slave in nd by their husbands r, happier in the ps, in the US than hat they might be eportation with their man left alone to ch a situation is still not too concerned when is not known or if they isappearance.  e in September and [students) were taken by s (sieliai in Lithuanian). art so that the passengers t have been many drowned. y had left was the clothing s resigned themselves to way they were permitted to of resistance, deportees re had.  ny Lithuanians. Having heard is they fear it less now
having it is the US who has knowle in feasent t childr bring prefer they a succees The last contraint to the last contraint to the succees The last contraint to t	always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we always more desirable than that of the kolkhoz we also had the opportunity to escape; they are howevered that their husbands are safe and often, perhabiting continually that they might be arrested or the Siberian prison camps in which case their own does not not consider their own does not consider their the safe to deportation to Siberia. These women are treated that the exact location of their does not contain a plausible explanation of their does the deportations of their does not safe their busbands of the deportees (among them five over the containing a plausible explanation of their does not safe the deportees of 1951. The deportees (among them five over the deportees of 1951. The deportees (among them five over the deportees of the deportee of the deportee of the safe that the hey were. I most of the deportee of a request for voluntary departure, for in this in them food and clothing, whereas, in any case orbiden to take with them whatever they might have the mentality of might have the contained by the thought of it is there, one no longer fears anything or anythods.	ardless of their fate, rker or of a slave in nd by their husbands r, happier in the ps, in the US than hat they might be eportation with their man left alone to the a situation is still not too concerned when is not known or if they disappearance.  e in September and [students) were taken by s (sieliai in Lithuanian). Art so that the passengers thave been many drowned. The had left was the clothing s resigned themselves to vay they were permitted to of resistance, deportees we had.  There are no more threats.

Approved For Release 2004/02/11 : CIA-RDP80-00809A000500530180-1

Missing
25X1	1,
25X1	65
the second of th
· ····································
and and the second seco
	••••
	- 1
in the same transfer of the same of the sa · Sanda a sanda
er e	***